

KAYCEE GALANO

Miss Shannon's Music Studio welcomes new Violin Instructor, KayCee Galano. KayCee has established herself as one of the leading young violinists of her generation. She studies at the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music with Kurt Sassmannshaus.

- She has performed concertos with orchestras in Europe, China, North America, and in her native Philippines. She recently made her Carnegie Hall debut last October, performing all 6 Bach solo sonatas.
- In 2018, she performed in the Philippines with the ABS-CBN Philharmonic Orchestra, performing Mozart's A major violin concerto and other works. Later that year, she was invited to perform the Bruch Violin Concerto with the Philippine Philharmonic Orchestra.
- KayCee recently competed at the First International Viktor Tretyakov Violin Competition in Russia where she was a semifinalist.
- KayCee won First Prize in the Malaysian Youth Music Festival, and 1st prize at the Great Wall Violin Concerto Competition in Beijing, performing the Brahms Violin Concerto. She was featured on National Public Radio's "From The Top" with Christopher O'Riley at age 12. At age 14, she toured in the USA with pianist Rohan DeSilva. Ms. Galano also toured China with the Starling Chamber Orchestra.
- She has participated in the Queenstown Violin Summer School in New Zealand, and has performed repeatedly at the Great Wall International Music Academy in Beijing. She also took part in the Innsbrook Music Institute and the Bowdoin International Music Festival.
