

REBEKAH WILHELM

Miss Shannon's Music Studio welcomes new Cello Instructor, Rebekah Wilhelm.

- Originally from Dayton Ohio, Rebekah taught in a private studio and was very active at Wright State University where she attended for two years.
- She continued her studies at Ohio University in Athens, Ohio in cello performance. As an undergraduate, Rebekah won principal cellist of the University Symphony Orchestra and held the position of cellist in the Klinder Graduate String Quartet. She also taught at Athens Community Music School where her students ranged from ages 8-60.
- Rebekah has performed in various masterclasses including Keith Lockhart, Joel Smirnoff, Laura Metcalf, Craig Hultgren and Adriana Cantino. Rebekah finished her Masters degree in cello performance at Butler University in 2019 under Dr. William Grubb.
- She has hiked the 2,200 mile Appalachian Trail and is now residing in her Batesville, Indiana with her new husband and puppy.