

YUDONG WANG

Miss Shannon's Music Studio welcomes new Percussion Teacher, Yudong Wang. Yudong is an international percussionist who resides in Cincinnati.

- Yudong's vast education includes Percussion Bachelor of Music from Harrt School of Music/University of Hartford and a Masters of Music from the College Conservatory of Music (CCM)/University of Cincinnati. He continues studying for his Doctor Degree of Musical Art at CCM.
- He has studied with Benjamin Toth, Rogerio Boccato, Ted Piltzecker, Shane Shanahan, Joe Galeota, John Amira, Professor James Culley and Russel Burge.
- Yudong has worked closely with the China National Symphony Orchestra, Beijing Wind Orchestra, and China Conservatory of Music Symphony Orchestra. He has also worked with great European percussionists like Germany's Nebojsa Jovan Zivkovic, Nederland's Ruud Wiener, and Denmark's Nikolai Petersen.
- As a solo percussionist, Yudong has won several competitions such as Golden Award of inaugural PAS China Festival Marimba and Silver Award of Snare Drum competition (2017), Silver Award of National Percussion performance and competition, and Golden Award of Chinese Teenager Miramba competition (2013).