

RAE JEAN AUTERSON

Miss Shannon's Music Studio welcomes new Piano/Voice Instructor, Rae Jean Auterson. Rae Jean has been teaching private voice and piano for over 30 years and began music directing and playing for rehearsals and all performances at the age of 16. She began piano lessons at the age of four and voice lessons at the age of seven and has continued in and on through her music career to this very day.

- Rae Jean has performed extensively throughout the country and world, singing, acting, dancing and modeling on Cruise Ships, International Tours, Theatre, Industrials, Cooperate Events, Commercials, Restaurants and Cabaret Shows in New York, Orlando, Michigan, Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio, California and all around the world
- While in New York, Rae Jean had the opportunity to work as a musical director for Stage Door Manor six seasons, a famous and renowned professional summer performance arts performing camp.
- Rae Jean has a BM in voice from Eastern Kentucky University and an MA in Leadership from Cincinnati Christian University. She has won many awards and honors a few of which are: Who's Who Among American Teachers, National Scholars Honor Society, American Legion Award, Best Vocalist award from Eastern Kentucky University, and is a published poet by the Library of Congress.

Rae Jean believes each and every human being has a right to learn about, enjoy, and perform music, as well as all the fine arts. She believes that every student - no matter what age - is unique and has potential beyond their own imagination.
